

Looking to purchase real estate in Italy - Rome? I can help.

Whether you are looking for a vacation home, seeking investment property, or relocating for a job or an educational opportunity, the real estate market in Italy - Rome has a lot to offer. There is tremendous opportunity here, but only if you know how to find and access it.

The first step to purchasing a property in Italy - Rome is to contact a reliable and educated real estate professional. Because the protocol of buying and selling real estate differs from country to country, international real estate transactions can be complicated. From currency issues and financing, to visa and tax laws, to contracts, duties and titles, you will need to work with a real estate professional who can guide you through the process of buying real estate in Italy - Rome.

As a Certified International Property Specialist, I have the training and experience to serve international buyers. I will streamline the process to save you time, money and stress.

What is a Certified International Property Specialist?

A Certified International Property Specialist (CIPS) is a global real estate professional who has undergone specialized training to complete international transactions seamlessly and with reduced risk. Designees have a track record of working successfully with clients worldwide.

The CIPS designation is the only international designation recognized by the National Association of REALTORS®. Only REALTORS® who have completed extensive coursework and demonstrated considerable experience in international business are awarded this prestigious designation.
